

Cinnamon Toast (CT) is seeking a full-time Graphic Designer to transform creative concepts into tangible assets which reflect the messages, sentiments and goals described by our clients. The successful candidate has a healthy design background and intimate knowledge of the programs in Adobe Creative Cloud (InDesign, Photoshop, Illustrator, XD).

At CT, we value each team member's knowledge, experience, and ideas, and know that a collaborative, supportive ecosystem is a thriving one. With this in mind, the Designer must possess a can-do, positive attitude, and is known for bringing the best out of a team. Other necessities include:

- Exceptional interpersonal skills, including written and verbal communication
- Knowledge of web/interactive design and usability is a bonus
- Conceptual thinking; contributing ideas from start to finish of a project
- Flexibility in working autonomously, as well as part of a team
- Ability to work well under pressure; effective stress management
- Excellent analytical and organizational skills
- Effective time management skills
- Leadership skills: you leap at the opportunity to help or guide other team members

What you'll do on a daily basis:

- Determine the design, layout, and formatting of various creative materials
- Produce high-quality visual elements that will enhance a variety of marketing projects (ie: brand identities, websites, guidebooks, proposals, presentations, brochures, catalogs, etc.)
- Proof, prepare, and finalize creative materials for print/web applications
- Collaborate and coordinate with CT team members
